

LEAH HOLLAND ART

Leah is a native of Aiken, S.C. and moved to Macon, Ga. In her early twenties. She has decided to retire in the beautiful town of Ormond Beach, FL. She became interested in art at the age of 8. She has, throughout her career, dedicated her art success to her loving and supportive parents, Asa and Louise Holland.

Colors, movement, texture and light flow throughout Leah's work. Her work is in various mediums: Acrylic, Gouache watercolor, oil and Pen & ink. Her work is very versatile as she enjoys painting water scenes, landscapes, architectural buildings, portraits, animals and florals.

Leah's showings include; Goodyear Cottage, Jekyll Island, Ga.; Cherry Blossom Festival, Macon, Ga.; Mercer Law School and School of Medicine, Macon, Ga. She also displays her work at The Magnolia Art Gallery, Lake Oconee, Ga.; Tic Toc Enterprises, Daytona Beach, FL. and K & M Hardwoods, Augusta, Ga.

Leah has been published in various magazines. Lake Oconee living, Fall edition, 2016 and Golfer's Luxury Living, Athens, Ga., 2016.

She has been very active in The Cherry Blossom Festival in Macon, Ga. For several years. In 1989, her Third Street Park original painting won 2nd. Prize in overall show. Leah designed the Japanese Parasol pin in 1995. In 2012, she designed the Kimono pin as well as the Japanese lantern plate for the Festival's 30th year Anniversary.

Leah has a great interest in Milledgeville, Ga., capturing the college atmosphere in her renderings.

One of her most valued possessions is a signed print by Jack Nicklaus. The print is from her original painting of Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer in 1962. It was Nicklaus's first US Open win at the Oakmont Country Club in Oakmont, Pennsylvania.

Leah currently teaches art classes to adults and children of all ages.

Memorial Art Museum, Ormond Beach, Fl.

Hobby Lobby, Daytona Beach, Fl.

Leah's works can be viewed under the website, Frame of Mind picture framing, Ormond Beach, Fl.

